

Lesson
26

In our studies of the doctrine of Anthropology, we learned that Adam was created in the image of God. He possessed self-consciousness (I am), self-determination (I will), and moral reasoning (I ought). He was given a free will.

Our bodies are for God's glory:

Someone will say, "I am allowed to do anything." Yes; but not everything is good for you. I could say that I am allowed to do anything, but I am not going to let anything make me a slave. Someone else will say, "Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food." Yes; but God will put an end to both. The body is not to be used for sexual immorality, but to serve the Lord; and the Lord provides for the body. God raised the Lord from death, and he will also raise us by his power.

Do not be bound together with unbelievers; for what partnership has righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness?

We were created to be like God.

In Hebrews 2:14-18 it tells us that:

Since the children, as He calls them, are people of flesh and blood, Jesus Himself became like them and shared their human nature. He did this so that through His death he might destroy the Devil, who has the power over death, and in this way set free those who were slaves all their lives because of their fear of death. For it is clear that it is not angels that He helps. Instead, He
