

Hidden New Testament People

The New Testament contains the stories of many interesting people. We can learn how to obey God and please Him by studying the stories in the Bible.

The names of several New Testament people are hidden in the following sentences. Can you find and underline all the names listed? If you need help, look up the Scripture references. The hidden name is underlined in the first sentence.

ANDREW
BARNABAS
DORCAS
EUNICE
HEROD

JAMES
JESUS
LUKE
MARK
MARTHA

MARY
MATTHEW
PETER
SILAS
STEPHEN

1. Angela likes to pet Ernie, her cat, for hours. (Matthew 14:28)
2. Please Sterjes, use the mower to cut the grass. (Matthew 1:21)
3. Please check this mat the woman cleaned to be sure it is free of mud. (Matthew 9:9)
4. The sign said, "Will sell ukelele cheap." (II Timothy 4:11)
5. Penelope is a poet; her ode was published in a magazine of poetry. (Matthew 2:3)
6. He took two bites from a rye cracker before leaving the room. (Luke 1:39)
7. In band, he always marched in step, hence he was given the parade award. (Acts 7:59)
8. The doctor recommended Anthony use Clearasil, a safe treatment for acne. (Acts 16:25)
9. Most figurines are made using either a mold or cast to form them. (Acts 9:36)
10. Tom took the spool and rewound the thread, as his mother asked. (John 6:8)
11. On toast, Jane likes jam, especially strawberry jam. (Mark 10:41)
12. On a salad, Melissa likes the cheese to be bleu, nicely flavored and crumbly. (II Timothy 1:5)
13. Children should study grammar, knowing it is very important. (II Timothy 4:11)
14. Don't mar that beautiful new table by setting hot dishes on it. (Luke 10:40)
15. On the grass, near the old cow barn, a basset hound is peacefully sleeping. (Acts 9:27)