

Our friends are a very special part of our lives. Do you know when your friends make choices for you, instead of you making your own choices?

WRITE the names of four of your friends below, then fill in the chart. After you're done, put a by the friends that help you to do right; a by those who would talk you out of doing something wrong; and a by those friends that you can say NO to if they wanted you to do something wrong.

A PEER IS SOMEONE ABOUT YOUR SAME AGE, WITH SIMILAR INTERESTS AND CAPABILITIES.

PRESSURE COMES WHEN ANOTHER PERSON TRIES TO GET YOU TO DO OR SAY SOMETHING WHETHER YOU WANT TO OR NOT.

NAMES

One thing I like about this friend

One thing this friend likes to do for fun

LOOK at the marks you made and answer these questions to find out if your friends are helping you to make wise choices.

Are there names of friends with no marks? (Circle your answer.) YES NO

Why are there no marks? _____

Do you need to think about spending less time with the friends who encourage you to make wrong choices? YES NO

What could you do? _____