

Have any of our kinders ever helped make cookies? Did you follow a recipe with the directions? What would happen to your cookies if you did not follow the directions?

They Would be yucky!

God 's plan for your life has directions too. You can only learn God's directions for your life, by learning His word. When you do not follow God's directions, you will make bad choices, and bad choices are just like yucky cookies!!